

RIP SLAP & PASS

A great way to generate ideas and hear from the entire group is the protocol Rip, Slap and Pass. This protocol is fast moving and engages all team members.

PROTOCOL RULES:

- *No talking during the game
- *Make sure to give a prompt
- *Players can pass

PROTOCOL INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Give students the prompt when they are in their teams. Have them sit in a circle or square so they can pass the note pad.
2. Set a time limit for the protocol.
3. Have the first student generate a thought or idea, rip it off the sticky notes and slap it in the center of the table. They will then pass the pad to the next person. Repeat this activity until the time is up.
